" It was the goal of all of them, yearning desiring suffering; and the river's voice was full of longing, full of smarting woe, full of insatiable desire. The river flowed on towards its goal... All the waves and water hastened, suffering towards goals, many goals, to the waterfall, to the sea, to the current, to the ocean and all goals were reached and each one was succeeded by another... But the yearning voice had altered. It still echoed sorrowfully, searchingly, but other voices accompanied it, voices of pleasure and sorrow, good and evil voices, laughing and lamenting voices, hundreds of voices, thousands of voices."

- Hermann Hesse

If you can dream - and not make dreams your master;
If you can think - and not make dread your aim,
If you can meet with triumph & disaster And treat those two imposters just the same If you can fill the unforgiving minute With sixty seconds worth of distance run If you can keep your head when all about you Are losing theirs & blaming it on you If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you, But make allowance for their doubting too;
Then yours is the earth and everything that's in it.

Audrey,
 what ever I could put on this paper
 could never describe my feelings. I'll never forget my junior year, for you made it the best
 year of my career.
 I hope you find someone who deserves your love more than I did. Good luck in the future,
 and kill those ants!
 Love, always,
 Clint. ☼

Audrey,
 It's been a good year for both us. We been through a hell of alot together. Even those for the past couple of months we haven't been talking very much your still and equal to me and much better your a good wife and I'll always care what happens to you.
 Take care good good
 love
 Clint

I feel good - I pick up at second hand things, the first ones I deal in glad meet day & large hands! I hope to see you in time for a quick walk
